

THE FACULTY OF LAFAYETTE COLLEGE

Who May Attend Faculty Meetings

Voting Members: The following people have voting privileges and so count toward the quorum of faculty meetings.

- All regular (that is, full-time, non-visiting) Faculty in residence with the title of Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, and Instructor
- Faculty members on leave or teaching abroad (assuming prior notice to the Clerk of attendance at the meeting)
- Regular librarians with professional status (full-time and non-visiting)
- Chaplain
- President
- Provost
- Dean of the Faculty
- General Counsel
- Vice President for Campus Life

Regularly Invited Members: The following people may attend faculty meetings, but may not vote.

- Part time and visiting members of the Faculty and members of the teaching faculty with titles other than those listed above
- Faculty emeriti
- Deans without faculty status
- Registrar
- All Vice Presidents of the College not previously mentioned
- Educational Equity Coordinator
- Representative of the Administrative Council
- Director of the Center for the Integration of Teaching, Learning and Scholarship
- Student representatives serving on Faculty Committees

Other invited members: The President may nominate other members of the administrative staff to be invited by the Faculty when meeting business impinges on their expertise.

Robert G. Root
Clerk of the Faculty
November 1, 2018